Twin Pomegranates Wine: “Best Local Winery”

Fresno, Calif-- March, 2011. Twin Pomegranates Wine received the “Best Local Winery” award at Fresno Scene Magazine’s Shining Star Gala. Twin Pomegranates Wine has only been on the market for 15 months and receiving “Best Local Winery” was an incredible honor for them. “Being a new local wine company and having unique products can have its difficulties. Receiving this award helps us to know that we are headed in the right direction, and our marketing efforts are working. It’s a boost to our confidence.” --Brian Davis, Co- owner Twin Pomegranates Wine.

The award gala took place on Sunday February 28, 2011, in Fresno, California. Nine thousand readers voted for the Shining Star awards. Fresno Scene Magazine is one of Fresno’s newest magazines. Their mission is “to create and foster a community-synergy that transcends age, gender and race...”www.fresnoscenemagazine.com. “It was my pleasure to present Twin Pomegranate Wine with the Favorite Local Winery award. They are a unique, up and coming family owned winery operated by some of the most talented and nicest people in the valley. A pomegranate toast to Nick and Brian for a prosperous 2011!” Dawn Mayer – Editor Fresno Scene Magazine.

Twin Pomegranates Wines is a Fresno wine company. They make three wines: a 100% Pomegranate Table Wine, Pomegranate White Wine Blend, and a 100% Pomegranate Sparkling Wine.
