Twin Pomegranates Wine Releases New Pomegranate Chardonnay Blend

Twin Pomegranates Wine combines their 100% Pomegranate Table Wine with Edna Valley Chardonnay to create a unique blend.

Fresno, CA - Twin Pomegranates Wine has released a Pomegranate Chardonnay Blend, a new one of a kind wine. This unique blend of their signature Pomegranate Table Wine with Edna Valley Chardonnay is a new entry into the wine market.

The idea behind making the Pomegranate Chardonnay Blend was to appeal to wine drinkers who might hesitate to try a fruit wine. Twin Pomegranates Wine knew pairing the pomegranate with the chardonnay would appeal to the palate of a variety wine drinkers. Their new Pomegranate Chardonnay Blend has the nose of a Pomegranate with a hint of lemon and green apple, the body of a Chardonnay and a smooth finish. The wine encompasses the true essence of the pomegranate.

“Opposites do attract,” said Nick Davis, Co-Owner of Twin Pomegranates Wine. “Our Pomegranate Chardonnay Blend is perfect for anybody seeking to have the best of both worlds.” “This new blend is sure to knock the socks off white wine drinkers and pomegranate lovers,” said Davis.

The new Pomegranate Chardonnay Blend is the third wine produced by Twin Pomegranates Wine. Previously released wines include their Pomegranate Table Wine and Pomegranate Sparkling Wine. The company’s 100% pure California pomegranate wines contain no artificial ingredients or additional additives.
