

TWIN POMEGRANATES

This wine is a unique blend of Santa Barbara, CA chardonnay and Madera, CA pomegranate. It's the FIRST and ONLY Chardonnay/Pomegranate wine commercially available to purchase! As expected, the chardonnay adds structure, soft acidity and personality while the pomegranate, in return, adds the aroma and taste of fresh pomegranate seeds. Mixing these two wines present a beautiful amber color in appearance, allowing it to attract wondering and curious eyes.

Smells like...

- Initially, the nose is greeted by chardonnay perfume among hints of raw honey and fresh herbs. Close behind is the identifiable fragrance of pomegranate seeds amid vine-ripe raspberries. In this case, sensory overload is a good thing!

Tastes like...

- At first sip, the pallet is met with cool climate chardonnay, expressing freshly squeezed lemonade and mildly ripe kiwi. Slowly unveiled are the familiar flavors of pomegranate, showcasing the sweetness of Bing cherries and mouth-feel of raw cranberries. This wine finishes with refreshingly crisp acidity!

Semi-sweet chardonnay*
